How We Serve

Each year, Arts Davidson County engages hundreds of students through hands-on arts education and presents free exhibitions, performances, and cultural events that bring people together and keep the arts accessible to all. Through grant funding, we support local artists and nonprofits, strengthening the creative community across the county.

Through programs at our arts center, partnerships, community events, and outreach beyond our walls, we create opportunities for people of all ages to experience, participate in, and be inspired by the arts.

How Your Support Makes It Possible

Your support sustains a place where creativity lives. It opens doors for students to explore the arts, gives artists space to share their work, and brings people together through experiences that inspire, connect, and strengthen our community. It ensures that arts and culture remain accessible to people of all ages and helps keep a vibrant, welcoming space at the heart of Davidson County.

Your Gift in Action

- Hands-on learning and creative experiences for students.
- Free access to art and culture for the whole community.
- Grants that help talent thrive locally.
- Keep 202 North Main Street a place to create, connect, and celebrate the arts.

Make Your Gift Work for You

Joining the 50 is simple and meaningful. Your $1,000 commitment can be given in the way that works best for you:

- One-time gift – Make your full impact today and secure your place among the 50.
- Flexible payments – Make your full impact today and secure your place among the 50.
- Give with a partner – Join with a friend, family member, or business to give together.

As one of the 50, you'll play a vital role in keeping our creative space and programs alive, and you'll enjoy updates on the impact of your gift and invitations to special events across Davidson County.
